elite tree, future tree, final crop tree, Z-stem

30. October 2025

The elite tree is a selected tree that, based on its sociological position (e.g. crown class), vitality, and quality, is designated as a priority within a stand and is promoted through the removal of competing trees during stand tending.