emergent seed tree

30. October 2025

Tall tree that stands individually or in a group of other overstorey trees above the remaining stand. In even-aged forests, these trees are usually retained from the mature stand as seed trees to support natural regeneration and are removed at a later stage.