forest management regulation

30. October 2025

The medium-term forest management regulation for a forest enterprise, prepared approximately every 10 years. The results of the condition assessment and planning are summarized in maps, tables, and texts within a forest management report (management plan).