gap cutting, group felling

30. October 2025

Removal of several trees in the mature stand to initiate natural regeneration or to artificially introduce mixed tree species, creating canopy gaps with diameters up to one tree height (approximately 30 m) (cf. single-tree selection cutting).