illuminance

30. October 2025

The illuminance indicates the luminous flux in lux that strikes a given surface. Relative illumination expresses the proportion of light arriving on an open area (or above the canopy) that is available to regeneration plants below the canopy, given as a percentage of open-field light.