Initiation zone

30. October 2025

The upslope area where a hazardous process begins. In rockfall this is the source area where blocks become dislodged, so management focuses on rooting and slope stability to prevent release.