logging residue, felling waste

30. October 2025

The parts of trees not utilized during timber harvesting (e.g. crown residues) that remain in the felling area (the area where logging took place) or are partially or completely removed during site preparation for planting or seeding.