Mean annual increment

30. October 2025

Total volume produced divided by the current age. This indicates how much wood has been produced on average per year and per hectare across the entire lifetime of the stand up to the present time. Note that this includes both trees previously harvested during thinning operations and possible mortality due to competition and other factors