mixed stand/forest

30. October 2025

A stand consisting of at least two tree species that, through their interaction, significantly influence the structure and ecological conditions of the stand (cf. pure stand).