Secondary forest network skid trail network

30. October 2025

The skid trail network comprises the system of extraction trails within the stand that provide access to individual forest compartments. It complements the main forest road network and serves the efficient harvesting, maintenance, and monitoring of the forest. The spacing between skid trails depends on the management system and the harvesting method used.