silvicultural system

30. October 2025

A specific silvicultural concept for the establishment, tending, harvesting, and regeneration of stands based on general silvicultural principles, leading to specific structural forms of forest such as coppice, coppice-with-standards, and high forest.