(stand) tending

30. October 2025

Comprises silvicultural measures such as cleaning, thinning, pruning, and fertilization. These interventions, carried out after stand establishment or regeneration, promote the development of the stand toward a defined management objective (e.g. high-quality timber production).