top height

30. October 2025

The average height of the trees in the upper canopy layer (e.g. the 100 tallest trees). Compared to the mean height (the average height of all trees in a stand), top height is less influenced by thinning and is therefore more suitable for assessing site quality