volume

30. October 2025

Content of a standing tree stem (merchantable wood only), defined by tree height, diameter at breast height, and form factor. The stand volume indicates the wood mass of the stand per unit area (see merchantable wood and growing stock).